

Global Exchange Program Fact Sheet for Partner Universities

The University of Bonn

The Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn (University of Bonn) was founded in 1818. With a student body of about 35.000, the University is one of Germany's largest academic institutions and with about 3.500 international students from all over the world also one of the most globally oriented ones. A wide range of course offerings, an outstanding reputation in teaching and research and a unique location make the University an especially attractive place to study.

Bonn, the former Federal Capital of Germany, is located on the Rhine and a center for the Rhineland's way of life, art and culture. In 1989, the city celebrated the 2000th anniversary of its founding as a Roman settlement. With its 21 UN Agencies, Bonn is Germany's UN city and has approx. 150 international organizations.

Furthermore, the city is also the birthplace of Beethoven, has a beautiful historic town center with a daily open market, numerous museums and many other buildings and events of significance and cultural interest.

Accommodation

University dorms	Students can apply for a room in the university dorm through the online application page. The Studierendenwerk Bonn is the owner of the dorms. The lease contract will be sent via email to the students and has to be signed approx. 6 weeks before arrival. For (PhD-) students who want to stay less than one semester: Please get in touch with our International Office.
Monthly rent	250 € - 560 €
Cancellation policy	The Studierendenwerk Bonn's cancellation policy applies. According to the lease contract, a cancellation fee of up to three months' rent can be charged.
Latest move-out date	Winter Term: February 28th Summer Term: July 31st Move in / out is only possible Monday through Friday!
Is university housing available during the vacation period?	Yes
Dorm basic set	In all dorms, a starter kit with basic necessities is available for purchase. It is equipped with bedlinen, a pillow and duvet, towels, LAN-cable and basic kitchenware, costs: 60 €.
Private housing	Private housing is not recommended since it is generally quite expensive and hard to find.

Visa

What is the procedure for obtaining a visa?	USA, Australia, Canada, Japan, Korea, New Zealand: Students from these countries do not have to apply for a visa prior to their departure from their home country, but must apply for their electronic residence permit (visa) within 3 months after arrival in Germany. The following documents will be required: an application form (to be filled out by the student), proof of insurance, a confirmation letter of enrollment (supplied by our office), biometric photos and the application fee of approx. 100-130 € (to be paid by the student). Our office will assist the students with this procedure once they are in Bonn. Other countries: We will send out a letter of acceptance to the partner universities prior to the students' departure. This is required by the students to apply for their visa in their home country.
Passport	Students need a passport valid for the whole period of their stay and 6 months beyond.

Insurance

Health insurance	Students need to provide proof of a sufficient health insurance which covers the whole study abroad period for their enrollment at the University of Bonn. a) This might be a private international health insurance. Please note: Health insurance policies will not be accepted if the coverage is not equivalent to the coverage of a German compulsory health insurance! This must cover urgent cases of sickness and accidents, psychological treatment and, if applicable, chronic diseases, pregnancy and delivery. The coverage of repatriation costs is highly recommended. b) Students might also get a German health insurance upon arrival (cost. 103 € per month). In this case, they should make sure to have a basic travel health insurance for the first few days in Germany.

	Please be aware that students who are older than 30 years or who already reached their 14th semester have to take out a private health insurance which is more expensive.
Liability insurance	We also recommend that students take out a third-party liability insurance to cover any accidental damages caused to other persons or property during their stay.
Accident insurance	The social contribution fee of ca. 315 €, which students have to pay when enrolling, includes an insurance for accidents that might occur on the way from the university to your place of residence or on university grounds.

Financial Matters

Monthly cost of living during semester	Housing (on-campus)	250-560 €
	Food	200 €
	Laundry, clothing, sanitary products	80 €
	Health insurance	110 €
	Books, etc.	40 €
	Telephone, hobbies, sports, etc.	90 €
	Approx. costs per month	800-1000 €
University social fee	Social contribution fee incl. public transport, approx. 315 € per semester
Visa application fee	Approximately 100 €

Welcome & Social Activities

Welcome days	Welcome days for international students will be offered before the beginning of each term (September/beginning of October & April). Attendance is highly recommended as individual support for late arrivals is very restricted by the International Office. The exact dates are communicated online.
Study Buddy Program	The Study Buddy Program matches newly arrived international students (mentees) with a “buddy”, i.e. a student from Bonn who helps with matters around the taking up of studies and life in Bonn. Student volunteers from Bonn give international students advice and assistance and help them get off to a good start at university and in Bonn.
International Club	The International Club of the University of Bonn is a meeting place for German and international students as well as PhD students of the University of Bonn. During the lecture period, the club offers exciting and diverse events where students can make new contacts as well as get to know other cultures.
