Practical Information
Accommodation and University Life	UNESP's campuses are excellent places to experience the Brazilian way of life. They are located in small and middle size cities with friendly environments. International students are encouraged to live in republicas (rented houses with shared expenses) for better integration and cultural experience and the international office provides support to find accommodation. The campuses have sports facilities, restaurants, computer rooms, research labs and libraries.
Living Costs - Per Month* *estimated	São Paulo City: R$ 2.700,00 Countryside Cities : R$ 1.800,00
Health Insurance	Even though UNESP provides health assistance in each one of its facilities, you must acquire an international health insurance that includes your city of destination (not only São Paulo city) and also for the complete period of time that you are going to spend in Brazil. This insurance must cover repatriation as well. This document will be requested upon your registration at the UNESP campus.
Visa Requirements	Website - Brazilian Ministry of Foreign Affairs Website - Federal Police We strongly suggest you verify at the Brazilian Embassy or Consulate in your country to check if there is new information and/or procedures. Once accepted, the student will receive a Guide with more information
